YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL!

Each applicant for assistance will receive written notice of any decisions made regarding their application.

Applications for assistance have the right to appeal those decisions made in regard to their eligibility for services and/or specific payment amounts. Applicants will have seven (7) working days to file their notice-of-appeal. Applicants' notice-of-appeal should be filed with the Tribal Services Director, at the Ninilchik Traditional Council (NTC) office.

Informal Review: The applicant meets to review and discuss the decision that is being appealed. The concerns of the applicant will be given a fair and attentive hearing, and every effort will be made to resolve any problems at the time.

Formal Review: If the "Informal Review" does not fully resolve all problem areas, NTC will conduct a formal review in accordance with the Bureau of Indian Affairs standards to include...

1. The formal review will be conducted by a person who was not involved in the decision being appealed. The appellant (person making the appeal) will be provided with all records on which the decision being appealed was based, and will have the opportunity to supplement those records with additional information or arguments pertinent to the decision in question.
2. If requested, or at the option of the person conducting the formal review, a formal hearing may be conducted. The appellant will receive reasonable notice to the time and place of the hearing, and will have the right to be assisted or represented by a person of his/her choice, including legal counsel, at the appellant's expense.
3. NTC's reviewing official will preside over any hearing, assuring that it is conducted in a businesslike and orderly manner. Each side will be given fair and equitable time to present all pertinent facts and figures. This will include the inclusion of additional documents into the record. Notes will be taken of the substance of the hearing and will be made part of the appeal record and made available to the appellant.
4. Within ten (10) days of referral to the review official or completion of the formal hearing, whichever is later, the review official shall render a decision in writing to appellant. Such notice will include a statement of the appellant's right to a further review by the

HIGHER EDUCATION FUNDING INFORMATION

It is your responsibility to obtain funding for your education. You will need to save money for transportation and miscellaneous costs that you may incur before you enroll in college. To be successful, you must learn to budget yourself to ensure that you have enough money to meet your expenses.

Since the Higher Education Grant Program is a supplemental program, you must research funding opportunities! During the process of preparing for college, it is crucial that you apply for financial aid from other sources. The funds that you may receive from NTC will not be enough to meet your college expenses.

Basically, there are four (4) types of aid available:

- ✚ Scholarships/Grants (need not to be paid back)
- ✚ Employment (work in exchange for tuition and fees)
- ✚ Loans (must be paid back)

Federal (SEIG, Pell, PLUS, etc.)

- Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant (FSEOG)
 - The FSEOG is a federal gift aid administered by your school. Federal Pell Grant recipients with the lowest EFC are eligible for this federal program.
- Federal Pell Grant
 - The number of annual Pell Grant awards depends on the level of funding Congress allots to the program. The amount an individual student receives depends on School Cost, Estimated Family Contribution (EFC), and whether you attend full time or part time.
- Federal PLUS
 - ✚ State (Student Loan Program, SEIG, etc.)
 - ✚ Institutional (Alumni, Department, etc.)
 - ✚ Private (Alumni, Department, etc.)
